

PGWNet Regional Action Plan – 2006
(with Row Three revision in 2010)

Project Objectives	Outcomes (changes required)	Activities to bring about change	Measures of Change (success indicators)	Evidence / data source
Strengthen existing PGWNet NFAs	Active, full members of IFUW Participate in PGWNet Council Meetings and NFA Conferences Increase in Membership Initiate national projects which benefit women and girls	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Graduate Women’s data bases established in each country • Share data bases with other PI NFAs to enable members to make contact • Establish local NFA websites which can link to the new PGWNet website www.pgwnet.org • Commitment to increase membership through personal contact and marketing • Keep dues low, apply for Bina Roy Funding and seek sources of sponsorship • Formulate own National Action plans to give focus to NFA activities. 	Members of FAWG, SAWG, ATUW and VAWG actively involved in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting their organisations • Advocating for improvements in the status of women and girls • Promoting life long education through provision of scholarships and awards • Developing leadership and decision making capacity • Increased number of women in leadership and decision making roles • Membership increase of not less than 10%: FAWG - 20 new members SAWG -10, ATUW-13, VAWG -5 	Questionnaires, surveys, interviews, Increased membership Move from Associate to Full membership of IFUW Consolidate and increase number of national projects and NFA activities
Increase number of NFAs / clusters or groups in PGWNet	Not less than two new or reinstated PI NFAs – SIGWA and PNG Cluster	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Raise awareness of PGWNet with other organisations / institutions via the web, marketing and personal contacts: SIGWA - VAWG RMI - Ruby/SAWG Tuvalu - Ruby; PNG - AFUW Niue - ATUW Kirabati - Ruby Cook Is - NZFGW /Epenesa • Establish a contacts data base • Link PGWNet website with other relevant local websites to raise profile 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SIGWA Reactivated • PNG re-established • Positive interest expressed by other P. I. countries 	New associate NFAs registered with IFUW
Create and maintain links in NZ with Pasifika and Pacific Island women students and graduates and relevant NZ Pacific Island organisations	Foster and enhance a Pacific voice and profile within NZFGW through regular contact with Pacific units and centres, such as the Office of Pasifika Advancement (AUT), Va’aomanu Pasifika, (VUW), Macmillan Brown Centre for Pacific Studies (CU), Te Tumu and Pacific Islands Centre (OU)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Establish and maintain contact with Pacific women staff in Universities and ITPs; Pacific students’ associations and support centres; bodies such as Pacifica and the Ministry of Pacific Island Affairs. • Identify ways in which NZFGW can appropriately meet the needs of Pacific women and girls in New Zealand. • Explore options for establishing grants and awards for Pacific girl school leavers embarking on tertiary education. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Positive, sustained contact with relevant Pacific networks. • Enhanced awareness among Pasifika graduates of PGWNet and its work. 	Pacific women graduates returning to their own countries supporting their PGWNet NFAs. Ongoing engagement of Pasifika women graduates with NZFGW.